We almost built a home in Mt Hope. Sad when some can get around zoning laws. I had to go through hoops in 1983 to build in Skyline - and that was all about the neighbors not wanting too much land that someone could buy and build on- which we totally understood.

Infrastructure question: Do they have municipal sewer and water? There are already some new apartment houses along Route 17 that are unaesthetic. And what about the beloved trees?

Sue Limato it's not, but it's a pipul of sorts. They are not saying they are "only for" or "restricted to" Orthodox Jews, just that they are "marketed towards" them.
